Methodologies
Methodologies	Description
Workshop	The teacher acts as a mentor author, modeling writing techniques and conferring with students as they move through the writing process. Direct writing instruction takes place in the form of a mini-lesson at the beginning of each workshop and is followed by a minimum of 45 minutes of active writing time. Each workshop ends with a sharing of student work.
Long answer / essay questions	These long answers should be FOCUSED: Your response should answer all parts of the question without a lot of random ideas which have little or nothing to do with the question. STRUCTURED: You know the answer to the question but your ability to communicate that knowledge to your professor depends on how well you structure your answer. DOCUMENTED: Contrary to the True/False or Multiple Choice Question, your essay answer must go beyond a simple statement of fact. WELL PRESENTED: Students who do not use the accepted rules of English are often thought to be less competent or knowledgeable than those who do. I
Completion exercises	These exercises involve selecting the best word or pair of words from a list to complete the sentence. In some other cases the students will have to rewrite the sentence in order to gain flexibility in the language.
Seminar	Writing Seminars all focus on the skills necessary for effective critical reading and writing. Students, through practice and guidance, master essential strategies and techniques of academic inquiry and argument.
Critical bibliographical	A critical bibliography is primarily a test of your critical appraisal skills: can you analyze the central concepts and arguments of the material, as well as summarize its content?
Collaborative learning	Collaborative learning is a method of teaching and learning in which students team together to explore a significant question or create a meaningful project. A group of students discussing a lecture or students from different schools working together over the Internet on a shared assignment are both examples of collaborative learning.

-To compute the final grade which will be awarded to the exam, students must have passed at least 80% of the activities of the subject. In case of failing the course, all activities not done, as well as the final exam, must be recovered in July.

Those who are officially registered as part-time students, and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity.

Students who neither sit their tests in January or July will be scored "No presentado", if more than 50% of activities during the course are not submitted, they will be scored "suspenseo"

-assignments should be submitted in a timely manner to avoid being automatically disqualified. In case of plagiarism (ie copying) in the protected work or workshop exercises, oral presentation, or mixed test, students will be automatically scored "suspenseo"

-The only language used in class work and examinations will be English.

Students who have not attended classes regularly and sit only the July opportunity, will be assessed in the following way:
