General description	The Union Law I course is the gateway for students to the complex world of trade union rights. In this course, key to deal with warranties their naturally extended into the curriculum (Union Law II), we focus on the more theoretical aspects and individual Trade Union Law. To do this, we will develop 15 tracks, which we will structure into three sections or parts. In the first part (items 1-7), discuss issues that will focus on the definition, sources and history of Union Law. So, after presenting to the student the plot that occupies Union law within the Labour Law, will present the global international sources are responsible for regulating the Union Law, and its location on the Internet (item 2) and the regional and international European sources regulatory of the Union law and its location on the Internet (item 3). Consequently, item 4 will show us the sources of European Union regulatory of the Union Law and its location on the Internet. Obviously, we can not ignore our close environment and forget Spanish regulatory sources of Union Law and its location on the Internet (item 5), an issue that connects with jurisprudential sources regulatory Spanish Union Law and its location on the Internet (item 6). We will conclude our first part of the course with the study of the historical Spanish labor movement (item 7) essential to understanding the evolution of Union Law in our country. Different content has the second part of the program, which will deal with the legal representation of workers, starting with the concept and types of workers' legal representatives (item 8) and linking it almost seamlessly with related content of the election and mandate for such representatives (item 9). Then, we will analyze the skills and guarantees of workers' legal representatives with exhaustiveness, in item 10, the culmination of this second part of the course. As for the third part of the program, noting that will focus its contents to the subject of freedom of association, where attention to individual and collective facets (item 11), organizational and functional (item 12), positive and negative (subject 13) and, finally, the internal and external facets of freedom of association (item 14). We end this third part of the course to the study of international sources, compared and Spanish, regulating collective representation of employers, placing it in the 15 theme of the program.

Methodologies

Methodologies	Description
Guest lecture / keynote speech	Oral presentation in English and Castelán, complemented by the use of media and the introduction of some questions to the students, in order to impart knowledge and facilitate learning. The master session is also known as "conference", "expository method" or "lecture". This last method is usually reserved for a special type of lesson taught by a teacher on special occasions, with a content which is an original drawing from the almost exclusive use of the word as a means of transmitting information to the audience
Seminar	Practical part of the contents exposed to the whole group in the master session, with key support in the use of Internet. It is a type class "seminar" for each class type "master session". The group is divided into two
Events academic / information	Mandatory participation in activities organized and / or supported by the Faculty, with the intervention of Spanish and foreign extraordinary professors and can even be selected to present a scientific paper.
Objective test	Written test used for the evaluation of learning, whose distinctive feature is the ability to determine if the answers are correct or not. It is a measuring instrument, rigorously developed, designed to measure knowledge, abilities, skills, performance, attitudes, intelligence, etc.. It applies both for diagnostic, formative and summative evaluation. The objective test may combine different types of questions: multiple choice, management, short answer, of discrimination, of complete and / or association. Also can build with a single type of any of these questions
Workbook	Tendentially, classical extracts directly related to the topics discussed in master sessions and seminars

Assessment comments

It is essential to achieve 50% of the grade for each one of the sections to evaluate to join the different methodologies in order to obtain an average mark end. Failure to achieve the minimum required in any of the methodologies, the student does not exceed the course. In this case, the evaluation will consist suspended in the ordinary call and may be reviewed at the July opportunity, where the evaluation methodology will be a single objective test amounting to 100% of the grade, both on theoretical and practical content of the program

Alternatively, students who can not make a regular monitoring of the subject, may choose to examine 100% of its rating by an objective test end.

Failure to achieve 50% of total grade on that test, the assessment will consist suspended in the ordinary call and may be reviewed at the July opportunity, where the evaluation methodology will be a single objective test amounting to 100% of qualification, versando both on theoretical and practical content of the program.

All students shall contain a prominent notice on their file if they choose to CONTINUOUS EVALUATION or FINAL EXAM. If not given, or not given the card within fifteen days after the start of the academic year, is understood to opt for the FINAL EXAM. The choice is final and irreversible for the call in progress.
