	Methodologies
Methodologies	Description
Introductory activities	Initial contact with the course contents. Different activities will be conducted to obtain relevant information from/about the students' level of competence in English. This information will be used to articulate the different teaching strategies to favor a comprehensive and effective learning.
Guest lecture /	Professor lectures, supported by A/V technologies, and including questions and discussions that help students to acquire keynote speech	general knowledge and specific contents.
Seminar	Practical classes conceived to develop speaking, writing, reading and listening skills using a topic from the course contents of others that might be of general interest. Students will participate in these seminars every week, so that they are able to practice all skills uninterruptedly.
Directed discussion	Oral activities in small groups, monitored by Teaching Assistants, in which students' speaking skills are put into practice.
	Informal, spontaneous, and natural conversations and debates are to be expected in these sessions.
Supervised projects	Students will work on a group project about a specific topic that will be detailed during the Introductory Activities session. The aim of this activity is to foster students' autonomous and collaborative learning. Each group's project will be presented in class and a written/digital copy will be handed in to the professors.
Objective test	Written examination. It allows professors to assess knowledge, skills, abilities, attitudes, and intelligences developed by students during the semester. The objective test may include several types of questions: multiple choice, brief answers, association, gap-filling, and other activities and tests.
Speaking test	A brief conversation or interview with professors (individually or in pairs). Students will improvise situations suggested by the professors, and they will be allowed to use A/V materials during the test.
Student portfolio	This is a filing folder to store and arrange the materials produced by each student over the semester. It will allow them to visualize their progress. It should include essays, extra credit work, etc.
Workbook	It includes all the reading material students will have to use as out of class preparation for the reading comprehension activities, as well as all other readings in English students use in other subjects or in other situations: journals, newspapers, magazines, internet, etc. Professors strongly encourage students to read as much as possible.
Collaborative learning	The production of a collaborative project will promote peer learning. Students are required to work in small groups, sharing abilities and information. Professors' supervision will help individual students optimize their learning.

	Personalized attention
Methodologies	Description
Supervised projects	The instructors will correct and mark several pieces of writing (a maximum of 4 per student). Students should pay attention
Student portfolio	their grammatical, lexical or stylistic mistakes and rewrite the tasks when required. Do not hesitate to ask for help if you need to solve doubts or need advice about self-study material or tools.
	Throughout the semester, students should inform the lecturer about their progress on the projects and on the course in general, either during office hours or by e-mail.

		Assessment
Methodologies	Competencies	Description	Qualification

Seminar	C3	Two in-class listening comprehension tests will assess the listening competences	20 developed by students in the course seminars (15% of the final score). They will be done either throughout the course OR on the official date in the evaluation period.
		Attendance and active participation in all sections could add up to a 5% to the final score.
Supervised projects	B1	The assessment of the project (10% of the final grade) will be based on the written	10 part, the oral presentation and the group work during the semester.
Objective test	A15 C2	Students will have to take two objective tests (Use of English) during the semester.	30
		These tests will assess students' class work. (30%). If students do not obtain a 5, they will have to retake the Use of English final test in June.
Speaking test	A15 B4	All students will take an oral exam at the end of the semester or during the	10 assessment period, In that test, he/she will have to prove his/her communicative competence in English.
		If a student obtains at least a 6 out of 10 in the continual assessment in class, he/she will not have to take the final speaking test.
Student portfolio	B3	Students will have to write at least three writing tasks during the semester. Professors	15 will pay particular attention not only to the linguistic quality of these compositions, but also to their originality, creativity, transversality, and personal involvement.
Workbook	A6	One or two short stories in English will be provided for students to read. Students will	15 have to write short written answers about these readings (5%).
		Also, in the last few weeks of the semester OR on the official date in the evaluation period there will be an in-class test. In this exam, students will be expected to write short answers about a text that will be provided by the professors during the exam (10%)

Assessment comments

IMPORTANTIn order to pass this course, a minimum of 5 out of 10 in the final mark is required. A score of 4 out of 10 is the minimum required in each of the parts of the course (reading/listening/speaking/writing/Use of English). Those students who get more than 5 in the two Use of English tests which will be done throughout the course will not have to take the official exam in June. Deadlines for assignments are strict. Late submissions will be penalized (25% off final mark), unless they are duly justified. Pieces of work including plagiarized material will be marked with 0. Active participation in the different class activities, as well as all the extra-credit material carried out by the students during the course, could be awarded up to an extra 5% of the final mark. This can include voluntary work, alternative readings or any other activity proposed and accepted by students and teachers. The students who do not attend the official exam will be given a grade of NP (absent) if they have not handed in more than 50% of the continuous assessement activities. July opportunity: Those students who do not take or fail the official exam or get less than a 4 in each of the parts (even if the average is over 5) will have to take the "second opportunity exam session" in July, where students can retake those parts they have failed according to the following distribution: listening comprehension (15%), writing tasks (15%), reading comprehension (15%), speaking/interview (10%), project (10%), and written text (35%). These requirements also apply to the December opportunity. Academic Exemption: Students who have enrolled part-time and been granted exemption, as specified in the university regulations, will be assessed in December or July, according to the criteria applied in the July opportunity.
