General description	The aim of this course is to revise and consolidate the main structures and functions of the English language at an upper-intermediate level (B2). Students will be trained in the four language skills (listening, speaking, reading and writing), and in the uses of grammar. Time will also be devoted to the vocabulary component of verbal communication. The course will require active collaboration from the students both inside and outside class. Students are expected to consolidate their B1 level competences and develop part of the competences of B2.

Methodologies
Methodologies	Description
Introductory activities	Initial contact with the course contents. Different activities will be conducted to obtain relevant information from/about the students' level of competence in English. This information will be used to articulate the different teaching strategies to favor a comprehensive and effective learning.
Guest lecture / keynote speech	Professor lectures, supported by A/V technologies, and including questions and discussions that help students to acquire general knowledge and specific contents.
Seminar	Practical classes conceived to develop speaking, writing, reading and listening skills using a topic from the course contents or others that might be of general interest. Students will participate in these seminars every week, so that they are able to practice all skills uninterruptedly.
Directed discussion	Oral activities in small groups, monitored by Teaching Assistants, in which students' speaking skills are put into practice. Informal, spontaneous, and natural conversations and debates are to be expected in these sessions.
Speaking test	A brief conversation or interview with professors (individually or in pairs). Students will improvise situations suggested by the professors, and they will be allowed to use A/V materials during the test.
Workbook	It includes all the reading material students will have to use as out of class preparation for the reading comprehension activities, as well as all other readings in English students use in other subjects or in other situations: journals, newspapers, magazines, internet, etc. Professors strongly encourage students to read as much as possible.
Supervised projects	Students will work on a group project about a specific topic that will be detailed during the Introductory Activities session. The aim of this activity is to foster students' autonomous and collaborative learning. Each group's project will be presented in class, and a written/digital copy will be handed in to the professors.
Student portfolio	This is a filing folder to store and arrange the materials produced by each student over the semester. It will allow them to visualize their progress. It should include essays, extra credit work, etc.
Mixed objective/subjective test	Written examination. It allows professors to assess knowledge, skills, abilities, attitudes, and intelligences developed by students during the semester. The objective test may include several types of questions: multiple choice, brief answers, association, gap-filling, and other activities and tests.
Collaborative learning	The production of a collaborative project will promote peer learning. Students are required to work in small groups, sharing abilities and information. Professors' supervision will help individual students optimize their learning.

Personalized attention
Methodologies	Description
Supervised projects Student portfolio	The instructors will correct and mark several pieces of writing (a maximum of 4 per student). Students should pay attention to their grammatical, lexical or stylistic mistakes and rewrite the tasks when required. Do not hesitate to ask for help if you need to solve doubts or need advice about self-study material or tools. Throughout the semester, students should inform the lecturer about their progress on the projects and on the course in general, either during office hours or by e-mail.

Assessment

Methodologies	Competencies / Results	Description	Qualification
Seminar	A6 A9 A15 B3 B4 B5	A minimum of two listening comprehension tests will assess the listening competences developed by students in the course seminars (15% of the final score). They will be done either throughout the course OR on the official date in the evaluation period. Attendance and active participation in all sections could add up to a 5% to the final score.	20
Mixed objective/subjective test	A6 A9 A15 B1 B3 B6 C2	Students will have to take two Use of English tests during the semester. These tests will assess students' class work. If students do not obtain a 5, they will have to retake the Use of English final test in January.	30
Speaking test	A6 A9 A15 B4 B5 C2	Students will take an oral exam at the end of the semester or during the assessment period. In that test, he/she will have to prove his/her communicative competence in English. If a student obtains at least a 6 out of 10 in the continuous assessment in class, he/she will not have to take the final speaking test.	10
Workbook	A6 B1 B3 B6 C2	A minimum of two short stories in English will be provided for students to read. Students will have to answer some questions about these readings. Also, in the last few weeks of the semester OR on the official date in the evaluation period, there will be a reading test. In this exam, students will be expected to write short answers about a text that will be provided by the professors during the exam.	15
Supervised projects	A6 B3 B5 B6 C2 C3	The assessment of the project (10% of the final grade) will be based on the oral presentation, the written part and the group work during the semester.	10
Student portfolio	A6 A9 A15 B3 B6	Students will have to write at least two writing tasks during the semester. Professors will pay particular attention not only to the linguistic quality of these compositions, but also to their originality, creativity, transversality, and personal involvement.	15

Assessment comments

IMPORTANTIn order to pass this course a minimum of 5 out of 10 in the final mark is required. A score of 4 out of 10 is the minimum required in each of the parts of the course (reading/listening/speaking/writing/Use of English). Those students who get more than 5 in the two Use of English tests which will be done throughout the course will not have to sit for the official exam in January.

Deadlines

for assignments are strict. Late arrivals will be penalised (25% off final mark), unless they are duly justified. Pieces of work including plagiarized material will be marked with 0.

Active

participation in the different class activities, as well as all the extra-credit material carried out by the students during the course, could be awarded up to an extra 5% of the final mark. This can include voluntary work, alternative readings or any other activity proposed and accepted by students and teachers.

The

students who do not attend the official exam will be given a grade of NP (absent) if they have not handed in more than 50% of the continuous assessment activities.

July opportunity:

Those students who are absent from or fail the official examination session or those with less than a 4 in each of the parts (even if the average is superior to 5) will have to sit for the "second opportunity exam session" in July, where students can retake those parts they have failed, according to the following distribution of percentages: Listening comprehension (15%), writing tasks (15%), project (10%), reading comprehension (15%), oral interview (10%) and mixed test (35%).

Students

who are officially registered as part time, and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity.

Students sitting the December exam (final exam brought forward) will be assessed according to the criteria specified for the July opportunity.

ADI

is a university office specialised in attending to members of the university with special needs due to disability or other differentiating situations with regard to the rest of the community. Students can talk to Dr. Ana Veleiro for more information, or contact ADI directly at <http://www.udc.es/cufie/uadi/>, or by phone ext. 5622, or via email: adi@udc.es

IMPORTANTE: Para superar a materia, a suma das distintas probas, project e demais actividades avaliáveis deberá ser 5 sobre

10, tendo en conta que a cualificación mínima das probas obxectivas de Use of English e das probas que avalían as catro destrezas deberá ser de 4 puntos sobre 10. Os alumnos que acaden máis dun 5 nas probas prácticas de "Use of English" feitas ao longo do cuadrimestre estarán exentos do exame de "Use of English" na proba obxectiva de xaneiro.

Aplicarase unha penalización do 25% sobre a cualificación final de traballos e actividades se estes son entregados fóra de prazo sen causa xustificada. Os alumnos/as que non se presenten o día das probas obxectivas de xuño ou xullo acadarán a cualificación de NP, se non entregaron máis do 50% de actividades durante o curso.

A participación dinámica nas diferentes tarefas da clase, así como todo o material de "extra-credit" que o alumnado realice ao longo do cuadrimestre, poderá supoñer ata un 5% extra na nota final. Isto inclúe traballos voluntarios, lecturas alternativas ou calquera outra actividade proposta polo profesorado, ou proposta polo alumnado e aceptada polo profesorado.

AVALIACIÓN XULLO: Os/as estudantes que en xaneiro non superen a materia ou aqueles/aquelas que non presenten alomenos o

50% das redaccións terán que ir á oportunidade de xullo, na que o alumnado terá que demostrar ter acadadas as competencias da materia nos porcentaxes totais establecidos mediante a superación de probas nas distintas destrezas, redaccións substitutorias das feitas na aula, lectura dunha narración breve distinta á proposta durante o cuadrimestre, e unha entrevista oral individualizada coa profesora.

Alumnado con dispensa: O alumnado matriculado a tempo parcial e que teña concedida unha dispensa académica deberá porse en contacto co profesorado da materia a principio de curso para planificar, en cada situación concreta e individual, os axustes necesarios na avaliación, no tocante as porcentaxes de "discusión dirixida", "lecturas" e "seminario" .
