| Methodologies | |
|--------------------------------|---|
| Methodologies | Description |
| Introductory activities | Initial contact with the course contents. Different activities will be conducted to obtain relevant information from/about the students' level of competence in English. This information will be used to articulate the different teaching strategies to favor a comprehensive and effective learning. |
| Guest lecture / keynote speech | Professor lectures, supported by A/V technologies, and including questions and discussions that help students to acquire general knowledge and specific contents. |

|------------------------|--|
| Seminar | Practical classes conceived to develop speaking, writing, reading and listening skills using a topic from the course contents or others that might be of general interest. Students will participate in these seminars every week, so that they are able to practice all skills uninterruptedly. |
| Directed discussion | Oral activities in small groups, monitored by Teaching Assistants, in which students' speaking skills are put into practice. Informal, spontaneous, and natural conversations and debates are to be expected in these sessions. |
| Supervised projects | Students will work on a group project about a specific topic that will be detailed during the Introductory Activities session. The aim of this activity is to foster students' autonomous and collaborative learning. Each group's project will be presented in class, and a written/digital copy will be handed in to the professors. |
| Objective test | Written examination. It allows professors to assess knowledge, skills, abilities, attitudes, and intelligences developed by students during the semester. The objective test may include several types of questions: multiple choice, brief answers, association, gap-filling, and other activities and tests. |
| Speaking test | A brief conversation or interview with professors (individually or in pairs). Students will improvise situations suggested by the professors, and they will be allowed to use A/V materials during the test. |
| Student portfolio | This is a filing folder to store and arrange the materials produced by each student over the semester. It will allow them to visualize their progress. It should include essays, extra credit work, etc. |
| Collaborative learning | The production of a collaborative project will promote peer learning. Students are required to work in small groups, sharing abilities and information. Professors' supervision will help individual students optimize their learning. |

Personalized attention

| Methodologies | Description |
|--|--|
| Supervised projects Student portfolio | Students will inform about their progress in writing and reading students should keep their portfolio to keep record of their activities. |

Assessment

| Methodologies | Competencies | Description | Qualification |
|---------------------|--------------|---|---------------|
| Seminar | C3 | listening comprehension tests will assess the listening competences developed by students in the course seminars . They will be done before the official date in the evaluation period. | 15 |
| Supervised projects | B1 | The assessment of the project will be based on the written part, the oral presentation and the group work during the semester. | 10 |
| Objective test | A15 C2 | Students will have to take two objective tests (Use of English) during the semester. | 50 |
| Speaking test | A15 B4 | All students will take an oral exam at the end of the semester or during the assessment period, In that test, he/she will have to prove his/her communicative competence in English. | 15 |
| Student portfolio | B3 | Readings and tasks during the semester. Professors will pay particular attention not only to the linguistic quality of these compositions, but also to their originality, creativity, transversality, and personal involvement. Students will have to submit several small tasks throughout the semester. | 10 |

Assessment comments

IMPORTANTIn order to pass this course a minimum of 5 out of 10 in the final mark is required. A score of 4 out of 10 is the minimum required in each of the following parts of the course (exam, writing task, oral test).

Deadlines

for assignments are strict. Late arrivals will be penalised (25% off final mark), unless they are duly justified. Plagiarized work will be marked with 0.

Active

participation in the different class activities, as well as all the extra-credit material carried out by the students during the course, could be awarded up to an extra 5% of the final mark. This can include voluntary work, alternative readings or any other activity proposed and accepted by students and teachers.

The students who do not attend the official exam will be given a grade of NP (absent) if they have not handed in more than 50% of the continuous assessment activities

July opportunity: Those students who are absent from or fail the official examination session or those with less than a 4 in the writing assignments or in the speaking test (even if the average is superior to 5) will have to sit for the "second opportunity exam session" in July, where students can retake those parts they have failed, exam(50%) and the assessment of other skills (50%)

Students who are officially registered as part time, and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity.

Students sitting the December exam (final exam brought forward) will be assessed according to the criteria specified for the July opportunity.

is a university office specialised in attending to members of the university with special needs due to discapacity or other differentiating situations with regard to the rest of the community.

Students can talk to Dr. Ana Veleiro for more information, or contact ADI directly at <http://www.udc.es/cufie/uadi/>, or by phone ext. 5622, or via email: adi@udc.es.

July opportunity: Those students who do not take or fail the official exam or get less than a 4 in each of the parts (even if the average is over 5) will have to take the "second opportunity exam session" in July, where students can retake those parts they have failed according to the following distribution: listening comprehension (15%), writing tasks (15%), reading comprehension (15%), speaking/interview (10%), project (10%), and written text (35%). These requirements also apply to the December opportunity.

Academic Exemption: Students who have enrolled part-time and been granted exemption, as specified in the university regulations, will be assessed in December or July, according to the criteria applied in the July opportunity.
