General description	The Union Law II course is, as its name indicates, the natural continuation Union Law I. If in the first part we focus on the more theoretical aspects and individual Union Law, in the second we will deal with the collective aspects of this matter. To do this, we will develop 15 lessons, which we will structure into three big sections or parts. In the first part (lessons 1-8), talk about collective bargaining. Thus, after introducing the student to the regulatory and constitutional basis of the right to collective bargaining, we analyze in detail the bargaining units (lesson 2) and the legitimation to negotiate a statutory collective agreement (lesson 3). Consequently, lesson 4 will show us the process of negotiating these cited a statutory collective agreements. Obviously, these collective agreements are subject to different statutory mechanisms to publicize them (lesson 5), subject to study just before delving into the notice of these same conventions (lesson 6). We will conclude our study of the collective agreements alluding to efficacy of them (lesson 7) as a prelude to the final issue of the first part. Will end, therefore, considered as an object of study other forms of collective bargaining negotiation process outside the regulated under Title III of the Statute of Workers: extrastatutory collective agreements (lesson 8). Different content has the second part of the program, which will take care of collective labor disputes beginning with the study of extra-judicial means of resolving collective labor disputes (lesson 9). Then, we will analyze exhaustiveness the most landmark of labor disputes in lesson 10 on the right to strike, as a prelude of the study to their legal effectiveness (lesson 11) and in a more particularized form in this collective labor dispute, as are essential community services (lesson 12). We end this second part of the course with the study of right of lockout, located in the program lesson 13. For the third part of the program, we reserve the subjects concerning collective bargaining in the European Union. In lesson 14 the character is the European social dialogue, while the final theme of the course we will discuss about collective bargaining in the European Union Administrations (lesson15). And so we conclude our journey through the different collective aspects of union rights.

Assessment comments

It is essential to achieve 50% of the grade for each one of the sections to evaluate to join the different methodologies in order to obtain an average mark end. Failure to achieve the minimum required in any of the methodologies, the student does not exceed the course. In this case, the evaluation will consist suspended in the ordinary call and may be reviewed at the July opportunity, where the evaluation methodology will be a single objective test amounting to 100% of the grade, both on theoretical and practical content of the program students who can not make a regular monitoring of the subject, may choose to examine 100% of its rating by an objective test end. Failure to achieve 50% of total grade on that test, the assessment will consist suspended in the ordinary call and may be reviewed at the July opportunity, where the evaluation methodology will be a single objective test amounting to 100% of qualification, versando both on theoretical and practical content of the program.

Alternatively,

All students shall contain a prominent notice sending an email to the teacher if they choose to CONTINUOUS EVALUATION or FINAL EXAM. If not given within fifteen days after the start of the academic year, is understood to opt for the FINAL EXAM. The choice is final and irreversible for the call in progress.
