Assessment comments
Attendance to classes is compulsory. Students who have been granted exemption, as specified in the university regulations, will be assessed according to the applicable criteria. These students must contact the professor frequently in order to discuss contents and assessment. For the September and December exams, students will have to deliver their Oral Presentations (in this case, individual presentations) (50%) and take the "objective test" (15%). Additionally, they will be required to submit all supervised projects through the virtual platform (35%), in all cases by the day of the official exam.

Other comments
Classes will be mostly delivered in English language. Students who are unable to attend one of the sessions must justify their absence properly.It is recommended to send the work electronically and if it is not possible, do not use plastics, choose double-sided printing, use recycled paper and avoid printing drafts.Sustainable use of resources and prevention of negative impacts on the natural environment are highly recommended.The importance of ethical principles related to the values of sustainability in personal and professional behavior must be taken into account.
