Methodologies
Methodologies	Description
Directed discussion	When dealing with literature, debating is essential for in-depth analysis and to assimilate contents, as well as to exchange ideas and interpretations. It may take place in the general sessions (D.E. hours, "docencia expositiva" or lecture hours) or in small groups (T.G.R., "titoría grupo reducido"), and it will be the main methodology in the hours assigned to D.I. ("docencia interactiva", Interactive teaching).
Workbook	In a literature course, it is essential for each student to take on the responsibility to complete the assigned readings before entering the classroom. In English Literature I, the schedule of readings will be made available both in the classroom and the Moodle platform. It is also each student's responsibility to be up to date on possible changes in the schedule.
Guest lecture / keynote speech	In the lecture sessions, the professor will present the theoretical contents related to English literature and its context from its origins until the end of the 17th century. Basic concepts for the analysis of literary texts will also be introduced in these classes. All these contents will frame and feed the work later developed in the mid-size and small groups sessions.
Supervised projects	Students will complete various written assignments (eg., literary analyses) mostly during class time. Out of the classroom, students will undertake additional tasks, such as reading, reviewing and editing.
Mixed objective/subjective test	Students will take a final exam in which they will need to demonstrate their mastery of the theoretical contents as well as the skills practised in every class. This exam will consist of short questions (definitions of critical terms and periods, identification of excerpts from the texts studied, analysis, etc).
Seminar	In T.G.R. sessions, work will mostly focus on writing well-structured interpretations of the readings.

Personalized attention
Methodologies	Description
Supervised projects Seminar	In the seminars, activities will be developed in small groups and/or individually. Professors will supervise the work of each student, especially during these activities. Students are strongly recommended to make use of the office hours in order to ensure their understanding of any program-related question, as well as to attend at least one individual tutorial during the course to discuss their progress.

Assessment
Methodologies	Competencies	Description	Qualification
Mixed objective/subjective test	A1 A2 A3 A6 A7 A9 A11 A15 B3 B4 B7 B10	Students will take a final exam in which they will need to demonstrate their mastery of the theoretical contents and the skills practised in class. This exam will consist of short questions (e.g., definitions of critical terms and periods, identification of excerpts from the texts studied, analysis, etc).	40

Directed discussion	A2 A6 A7 A9 A11 A15 B4 B5 B7 B8 B10 C2 C4 C7	Reading the materials assigned for each day, and solving potential vocabulary difficulties, before coming to class is a must. Any student who has not fulfilled this pre-requisite will be encouraged to use class time to do so and will not be able to take part in any of the class activities until s/he does--missing therefore the possibility to obtain points for that day's in-class assignments. Class activities may consist of oral and written, individual and group assignments such as summarizing, analyzing, debating, interpreting, identifying, etc.	20
Supervised projects	A1 A2 A3 A6 A7 A9 A10 A11 A15 B1 B2 B4 B5 B6 B7 B8 B10 C2 C4 C7	These will consist of two brief argumentative pieces written in class in which students will demonstrate their ability to interpret literary texts independently and to write well-organized, coherent and cohesive analyses--as well as their command of the English language.	40

Assessment comments

The second opportunity of assessment (in July) will consist of the following sections--all to be completed on the official date of the final exam: 1) a written exam with identical design and criteria to the final exam in the first opportunity, which will also be worth 40% of the grade; 2) an argumentative piece of writing about the readings done during the semester, which will substitute for the "Supervised projects" and "Directed discussion" sections in the first opportunity and which will be worth 60% of the grade. A grade of "Non Presentado" (Absent) will be obtained by not attending the exam and/or by completing less than 50% of the coursework. A 5 (or higher) out of 10 constitutes a passing grade. However, in the first opportunity, a minimum grade of 4 out of 10 must be obtained in the ?Mixed test? in order to pass the course. In the second opportunity, this same minimum grade must be obtained in section 1 of the assessment. Students will have the opportunity to earn up to 1 extra point that would be added to their course's final grade. More information will be provided in class and via Moodle at the beginning of the semester. Students officially enrolled part-time who have been granted an official dispensation from attending classes will need to contact the teachers at the beginning of the semester and they will be assessed according to the criteria applied in the July opportunity. Students sitting the December exam (final exam brought forward) will be assessed according to the criteria specified for the July opportunity. Instructors may use the plagiarism-detection service "Turnitin" to check students' work. Plagiarism in any activity will translate into a grade of "0" in this activity. Every assignment has to be turned in in time and in the specified format in order to avoid a penalty of 25% on the grade obtained. For a student to opt to the first opportunity of evaluation (continuous evaluation), he/she will need to have accomplished a minimum of 50% of the compulsory activities (participation and works). A qualification of "non presented" will be obtained by not attending the exam and/or by not accomplishing the works of the course that represent an inferior percentage to 50%. The opportunity of evaluation in July will consist of two sections: 1) a written exam (with the same design and applying identical criteria than that in the opportunity of June) that will evaluate the command of the contents given along the course and that will compute 50% of the mark; 2) the activities to deliver in due time, or at the moment of the final exam, and that will compute the remaining 50% of the mark. Those who are officially registered as part-time students, and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity. Plagiarism in any activity will translate into a qualification of "0" in this activity. All the works and activities have to be delivered in time and form so as avoid a penalty of 25% on the obtained mark.

Sources of information

Basic	Lecturas obligatorias: Ao comezo de curso porase ao dispor do alumnado (en Reprografía, en Moodle, ou na clase) unha copia das lecturas obligatorias anteriormente referidas na sección de "Contidos", coa excepción da obra Hamlet de Shakespeare, a única obra completa nesta lista. En Moodle haberá un enlace a unha versión online de Hamlet, pero animase ao alumnado a conseguir unha edición impresa ou electrónica para o seu uso individual. Deberá ser unha versión orixinal e completa de calquera editorial académica (ex., Oxford University Press, Penguin, Longman, Cambridge UP, entre outras).Pode usarse unha edición bilingüe para favorecer a comprensión das lecturas, mais as referencias ás obras en discusións orais ou escritas deberán ser á versión inglesa.
