	Methodologies
Methodologies	Description
Introductory activities	Initial contact with the course contents. Different activities will be conducted to obtain relevant information from/about the students' level of competence in English. This information will be used to articulate the different teaching strategies to favor a comprehensive and effective learning.
Guest lecture /	Lecture classes, supported by A/V technologies, including questions and discussions that help students to acquire general keynote speech	knowledge and specific contents.
Seminar	Practical classes aimed at developing speaking, writing, reading and listening skills using a topic from the course contents or others that may be of general interest. Students will participate in these seminars every week, so that they are able to practise all skills uninterruptedly.
Directed discussion	Oral activities in small groups, monitored by Teaching Assistants, in which students' speaking skills are put into practice.
	Informal, spontaneous, and natural conversations and debates are to be expected in these sessions.
Speaking test	Brief conversation or interview with lecturer (individually or in pairs). Students will also be required to read a text aloud and improvise situations suggested by the examiners. Examiners may use use additional printed or audiovisual material as a prompt to conversation.
Workbook	This includes all the reading material students required for out of class preparation for reading comprehension activities, as well as other readings in English students use in other subjects or in other situations.
	Students are strongly encouraged to read as much and as often as possible.
Student portfolio	The portfolio will consist of different writing and reading comprehension tasks set by the lecturer during the semester.
Supervised projects	Students will prepare a group project about a specific topic. Further details will be provided at the beginning of the course .
	The aim of this activity is to foster students' autonomous and collaborative learning.
Mixed	Objective/subjective practical test consisting of different types of questions: multiple choice, short answer, association, gap-fill objective/subjective	and other activities.
test
Collaborative learning	Working in small groups in class and using ICT to pool abilities and information, promote peer learning, and optimise learning outcomes for all group members.

Assessment comments

IMPORTANTIn order to pass this course a minimum of 5 out of 10 in the final mark is required. A mark of 4 out of 10 is the minimum required in each of the following parts of the subject: exam, student portfolio, speaking. In addition, in order to pass this subject, students must complete at least 50% of the tasks included in the portfolio? that is, 50% of the writing tasks and 50% of the reading activities.

Any academic dishonesty (plagiarism, cheating in exams, etc.) will be penalised in accordance with the provisions of the 'Normas de avaliación, revisión e reclamación das cualificacións dos estudos de grao e mestrado universitario', article 14. To detect plagiarism, the application Turnitin could be used. This application recognises papers previously turned in by other people (or the student him/herself) at this university or other universities. Deadlines for assignments are strict. Late arrivals (up to 5 days) will be penalised (25% off the final mark), unless they are duly justified.

The extra-credit activities carried out by the students during the course may be awarded a maximum additional 5% on top of the final mark.

This may include voluntary assignments, alternative readings or any other activity proposed and accepted by students and teachers. Students who do not attend the official exam will be given a grade of NP (absent) if they have not handed in more than 50% of the continuous assessment activities. July opportunity: Students who fail to attend or pass the official examination session in January or those with less than a 4 in the portfolio or in the speaking test (even if the overall average is superior to 5) will be required to take the "second opportunity exam session" in July, where students can retake the parts they have failed, according to the following distribution of percentages: 1) Mixed test (40%), with the following distribution: Grammar and Vocabulary (25%), Listening (15%); 2) Student Portfolio (35%), with the following distribution: Portfolio (20%), Reading Activities (15%); 3) Supervised Project (10%); 4) Oral Interview (15%).

Students who are officially registered as part time, and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity.

Students sitting the December exam (final exam brought forward) will be assessed according to the criteria specified for the July opportunity.

ADI is a university office specialised in attending to members of the university with special needs due to discapacity or other differentiating situations with regard to the rest of the community.
