| Methodologies | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| Methodologies | Description |
| Directed discussion | When dealing with literature, debating is essential for in-depth analysis and to assimilate contents, as well as to exchange ideas and interpretations. It may take place in the general sessions (D.E. hours, "docencia expositiva" or lecture hours) or in small groups (T.G.R., "titoría grupo reducido"), and it will be the main methodology in the hours assigned to D.I. ("docencia interactiva", Interactive teaching). |
| Workbook | In a literature course, it is essential for each student to take on the responsibility to complete the assigned readings before entering the classroom. In English Literature I, the schedule of readings will be made available both in the classroom and the Moodle platform. It is also each student's responsibility to be up to date on possible changes in the schedule. |
| Guest lecture / keynote speech | In the lecture sessions, the professor will present the theoretical contents related to English literature and its context from its origins until the end of the 17th century. Basic concepts for the analysis of literary texts will also be introduced in these classes. All these contents will frame and feed the work later developed in the mid-size and small groups sessions. |
| Supervised projects | Students will complete various written assignments (eg., literary analyses) mostly during class time. Out of the classroom, students will undertake additional tasks, such as reading, reviewing and editing. |
| Mixed objective/subjective test | Students will take a final exam in which they will need to demonstrate their mastery of the theoretical contents as well as the skills practised in every class. This exam will consist of short questions (definitions of critical terms and periods, identification of excerpts from the texts studied, analysis, etc). |
| Seminar | In T.G.R. sessions, work will mostly focus on writing well-structured interpretations of the readings. |

| Personalized attention | |
|--------------------------------|--|
| Methodologies | Description |
| Supervised projects Seminar | In the seminars, activities will be developed in reduced groups and/or individually. Professors will supervise the work of each student, especially during these activities. Students are strongly recommended to make use of the office hours in order to ensure their understanding of any program-related question, as well as to attend at least one individual tutorial during the course to discuss their progress. |

| Assessment | | | |
|---------------------------------|-------------------------------|--|---------------|
| Methodologies | Competencies | Description | Qualification |
| Mixed objective/subjective test | A3 A6 A10 A11 A16 B1 B3 B6 | Students will take a final exam in which they will need to demonstrate their mastery of the theoretical contents and the skills practiced in class. This exam will consist of short questions (e.g., definitions of critical terms and periods, identification of excerpts from the texts studied, analysis, etc). | 40 |

| | | | |
|---------------------|---|---|----|
| Directed discussion | A2 A6 A7 A9 A11 A15 B4 B5 B7 B8 B10 C2 | Reading the materials assigned for each day, and solving potential vocabulary difficulties, before coming to class is a must. Any student who has not fulfilled this pre-requisite will be encouraged to use class time to do so and will not be able to take part in any of the class activities until s/he does--missing therefore the possibility to obtain points for that day's in-class assignments. Class activities may consist of oral and written, individual and group assignments such as summarizing, analyzing, debating, interpreting, identifying, etc. | 20 |
| Supervised projects | A1 A2 A3 A4 A11 A15 B1 B5 B6 C2 | These will consist of two brief argumentative pieces written in class in which students will demonstrate their ability to interpret literary texts independently and to write well-organized, coherent and cohesive analyses--as well as their command of the English language. | 40 |

Assessment comments

? The second opportunity of assesment (in July) will consist of the following sections--all to be completed on the official date of the final exam:

1) a written exam with identical design and criteria to the final exam in the first opportunity, which will also be worth 40% of the grade;

2) an argumentative piece of writing about the readings done during the semester, which will substitute for the "Supervised projects" and the "Directed discussion" sections in the first opportunity and which will be worth 60% of the grade.? A grade of "Non Presentado" (Absent) will be obtained by not attending the exam and/or by completing less than 50% of the coursework.? A 5 (or higher) out of 10 constitutes a passing grade. However, in the first opportunity, a minimum grade of 4 out of 10 must be obtained in the ?Mixed test? in order to pass the course. In the second opportunity, this same minimum grade must be obtained in section 1 of the assessment. ? Students will have the opportunity to earn up to 1 extra point that would be added to their course's final grade. More information will be provided in class and via Moodle at the beginning of the semester.? Students officially enrolled part-time who have been granted an official dispensation from attending classes will need to contact the teachers at the beginning of the semester and they will be assessed according to the criteria applied in the July opportunity.? Students sitting the December exam (final exam brought forward) will be assessed according to the criteria specified for the July opportunity.? Instructors may use the plagiarism-detection service "Turnitin" to check students' work. Plagiarism in any activity will translate into a grade of "0" in this activity. ? Every assignment has to be turned in in time and in the specified format in order to avoid a penalty of 25% on the grade obtained.
