Workbook	Readings on different topics aimed at addressing or deepening on the issues studied in the classroom.

Personalized attention
Methodologies	Description

Supervised projects Case study Online forum

The personalized attention described will be developed mainly around the supervised project, and it is conceived as personal work time with the instructors of the course for the attention and follow-up of the project carried out by each of the working groups. The attendance of the students to these meetings is recommended. The specific form and times in which they will take place will be communicated throughout the course according to the work plan of the course, considering that the first meeting with the working groups will probably take place at the beginning of the second term. However, during the course the students can use the tutorial time to clarify doubts and questions about the course.

The students with recognition of part-time dedication, according to the "Norm that regulates the regime of dedication to the study of the students of Degree in the UDC" (Arts. 3.b and 4.5) will carry out their activities with the attendance and participation in the dynamics that are included in the sections of "Planning" and "Personalized attention", through the work groups that will be assigned. The activity will be carried out according to the observations of assessment on the flexibility of attendance-participation and the requirements to pass the course.

Assessment criteria

Second opportunity

In order to pass this course, both in the first and the second opportunity, it will be necessary to obtain a minimum score of 4 points out of 10 in the mixed objective/subjective test and the supervised project. If this requirement is not met, the final qualification will be "Fail", even when the average of all the activities that are part of the assessment will give a grade equal to or greater than 5 points out of 10.

If a student who has released or passed a part of the course (e.g., mid-term exam) does not manage to pass the course as a whole on the official dates of the exams of the first and second opportunity, his/her final grade will be "Fail". In the following academic year, these students might keep the grade of those tests that they have passed (as long as the grade obtained was equal to or greater than 5 points out of 10), if they wish, and as long as they inform the instructors of the course of their decision in the first two weeks of classes. This condition will only apply in the following academic year; from there onwards, the grades will not be kept.

Early December call

If there are students who want to take the early December call (Art. 19 "Standards for evaluation, review and claim of qualifications for undergraduate and master's degree studies"), given that this course is annual, those students will only have to take the mixed objective/subjective test (70% of the grade) and the supervised project (30% of the grade). The supervised project must be done individually.

In order to pass the course, a final grade equal to or greater than 5 points out of 10 must be obtained, as long as the students have obtained a score equal to or greater than 4 points out of 10 in each of the methodologies subjected to assessment.

No grade

The students who do not attend the final exam that will take place on the date established in the faculty's official exam calendar will be graded as "No presentado" (i.e., no grade). This criterion will apply both in the first and in the second assessment opportunity, as well as in the early December call. Students with recognition of part-time dedication and academic exemption waiver

The students with recognition of part-time dedication and academic exemption waiver must inform the instructors of the course at the beginning of the academic year, in order to establish a plan and calendar of activities. The assessment system will be the following one: mixed objective/subjective test (60%), supervised projects (20%), and case study (20%). The supervised project must be done in group.

Additional information

Fraudulent behavior in any of the methodologies subject to assessment will result in the grade of "Fail (0)" in the final assessment. It is forbidden to access the examination room with any device allowing for data transmission and/or warehousing (e.g., mobile phones, smart watches...) when any of the assessment test is taking place.

Other comments

This is an introductory course in which prior knowledge is not needed. It is recommended the review and follow-up of the course on the virtual campus, where the materials and contents addressed in the classroom will be uploaded and the activities to be carried out will be detailed. It is also recommended to read the economic press frequently and to bring the laptop or tablet to the interactive sessions. anbsp; The documents of the course will be delivered through the virtual classroom, in digital format; in case this is not possible, it is recommended to use recycled paper, double-sided documents, and to avoid the use of plastic materials. According to the different regulations applicable to university teaching, the gender perspective must be incorporated into this course (non-sexist language will be used, bibliography of authors of both sexes will be used...). Efforts will be made to identify and modify sexist prejudices and attitudes, and the environment will be influenced in order to modify them and promote values of respect and equality. and beneficial access to university life will be encouraged.
