	Methodologies
Methodologies	Description
Introductory activities	Introductory sessions, where activities aim to obtain information about students' level of competence, in order to advance in agreement with their expectations and requirements.
Guest lecture /	Exposition of theorical contents and practice, accompanied by audiovisual materials, with the aim of increasing students'
keynote speech	knowledge of the English language and the topics covered.
Student portfolio	Set of written tasks assigned during the term,
Seminar	Practical sessions where the basic communicative skills are developed, with special attention paid to speaking, listening and reading.
Directed discussion	Discussion in pairs and small groups, monitored by the teacher, in which students' skills are put into practice, whereby informal, spontaneous conversations and debates can take place.
Speaking test	All students will perform an oral presentation at the end of the four-month period, in which they must display communicative competence in the English language. Students will choose to do their presentations either in-class or as a vlog.
Objective test	Written examination. This allows teachers to assess the knowledge and linguistic skills acquired, developed and improved during the course. This may include several types of questions and will be based on materials covered in the course of the classes.

Personalized attention
Methodologies	Description
Seminar	The teacher will assess compositions during the course.
	Students should take into account the corrections and comments made and apply them in future work done. They should consult with teachers concerning errors and necessary improvements to be made, and make use of self-study time to apply corrections made.

Assessment comments

Passing the subject: To pass the subject, students must fulfil these two conditions:

- A) Final average of the whole subject over 50%
- B) Having more than 40% in each of the parts of these subject: "proba oral", "proba obxectiva" and "portafolios do alumno".

If students do not fulfil any of these conditions, they will have to go to the second opportunity in July.

Submitting tasks: Late submissions with no justification will be applied a 25% penalty. Plagiarised tasks will be given a 0 automatically. Plagiarism detection tools can be used. Any fault against academic integrity (plagiarism, copying a task or an exam...) will be penalised, according to the Regulamento Disciplinar do Estudantado da UdC, articles 10.3.f and 11.4.b, with a Qualification of Fail (Suspenso) for both opportunities in the Course.

Non

Presentado (NP) Qualification: To be able to obtain the Non Presentado (NP) qualification, students must not have sit the Objective test or the Speaking test.

JULY OPPORTUNITY: Students not able to pass the subject in the first opportunity must sit the second opportunity in July. The proportion of each assessment item will be the same, although tasks for the Portfolio and Seminars will be changed for new, specific ones. Those parts of the subject that students have already passed (more than 50% of the marks) in the first opportunity cannot be repeated for July. DISPENSA ACADÉMICA: Students will an officially recognised "dispensa académica" will be assessed following the instructions for the July opportunity, maintaining the same proportion for the assessment items and adapting the tasks so that they can be completed asynchronously. Students in this situation must contact the teachers as soon as they become aware of it.

Measures in favour of diversityThe subject could be adapted for students requiring the adoption of specific measures in favour of diversity, according to the instructions of the Unidade de Atención á Diversidade (https://www.udc.es/cufie/ADI/), with which you can contact during the periods established by this Unit. You can also count with the advice from the ADI tutor (pat.filoloxia@udc.gal).Measures in favour of equalityIn accordance with the various regulations governing university teaching, it is necessary to incorporate a gender perspective into this subject. This includes, among other measures, the use of non-sexist language, bibliographies that are inclusive from a gender perspective, and encouraging participation from all students in class, regardless of their gender.We will pay particular attention to identifying and addressing sexist prejudices and attitudes. We will actively work towards the modification of this environment and the promotion of values of respect and equality.Our efforts will focus on detecting cases of gender discrimination and implementing appropriate actions to rectify such cases.
