Assessment
Methodologies	Competencies	Description	Qualification
Research (Research A6 A18 B1 B6 C3		The project will be carried out with other classmates. Only in exceptional cases and	30 project)		with the teachers' consent may the project be done individually.
		The project will consist of a critical analysis and assessment of the positive and/or negative contribution of an event or person (no longer living) to English-speaking culture and society. The project should NOT be a mini-biography, list of accomplishments, history brochure, etc. (i.e. Wikipedia-type information).
		The project task will consist of: (i) an oral presentation to be done in class (dates to be published on Moodle); (ii) a 500-word abstract, including five keywords and a bibliography of all sources used (print and electronic). Specific details and instructions will be provided in class and on Moodle.
		Students should be aware that the faculty uses a computer programme (Turnitin) to detect plagiarism (i.e. copying the work of others, whole or in part, including copying and pasting), and the use of work handed in previously by the same student or by another student for a different subject or purpose. Any evidence of plagiarism will result in a zero mark for the project assignment.
Mixed	A2 A11 B7	Written exam: short answers; short commentaries; identification of significant	50
objective/subjective test		elements , objects, historical and cultural documents, paintings, geographical features.
ICT practicals	B3 C3	Students will work on the analysis and critical evaluation of primary and secondary sources found on Internet.	20
		Students will present two pieces of written works. Topics and characteristics announced on Moodle. Late submission will be penalised.
		Plagiarism, which includes cutting and pasting, will result in a 0 grade in this part of the assessment.

Assessment comments

Mixed objective/Subjective test: on the date approved by Xunta de Facultade for the academic year 2023-24 (first opportunity January 2024). The dates for submitting work must be adhered to; any circumstance which prevents a student from fulfilling his/her obligations must be justified with appropriate documents. The equivalent of a 5 out of 10 is necessary in each section of the assessment in order to pass this subject. The July opportunity takes place on the date fixed in the academiccalendar, it will be based on the repetition of the parts(s) not already passed, maintaining the same percentages (30% +40% + 30%). Topics for resit tasks will be announced onMoodle. Penalties will be applied for late submission. Students will obtain a"no presentado" (absent from assessment) if they do not attend the written exam and if they do not hand in 50% of the required practical work. Students who fail the first opportunity and do not attend the second opportunity in July will receive SUSPENSO --fail--. Students who are officially registered as part time, and/or officially allowed not to attend class, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity. Students in this situation should contact the teachers at the beginning of the semester.IT IS COMPULSORY TO DEMONSTRATE A B2 IN ENGLISH (MCERL), the course may be failed if this level of proficiency is not demonstrated through the course's assessable activities. December exam (final exam brought forward): assessment according to the criteria specified for the July opportunity. Diversity: This module can be adapted to students who need support for their particular situation (physical, visual, auditory, cognitive, learning process, or related to mental health). If necessary, students should contact the services available in UDC/in their school or faculty, or the Unidad de Atención ala Diversidad (ADI) at the beginning of each academic semester in the time frame officially established (https://www.udc.es/cufie/adi/apoioalumnado/);alternatively, they can contact the ADI tutor in the Faculty of Philology at the following address: pat.filoloxia@udc.gal). Failing grade in the exam session in which the offence is committed and with respect to the subject in which it is committed: the student will be graded with a "fail" (numerical grade 0) in the corresponding exam session of the academic year, whether the offence is committed at the first opportunity or at the second opportunity. To this end, the grade will be modified in the first opportunity report, if necessary.-In accordance with the various regulations governing university teaching, it is necessary to incorporate a gender perspective into this subject. This includes, among other measures, the use of non-sexist language, bibliographies that are inclusive from a gender perspective, and encouraging participation from all students in class, regardless of their gender.

-We will pay particular attention to identifying and addressing sexist prejudices and attitudes. We will actively work towards the modification of this environment and the promotion of values of respect and equality.

-Our efforts will focus on detecting cases of gender discrimination and implementing appropriate actions to rectify such cases.

Other comments

Regular attendance is very important for the study of this subject. Since some tasks for evaluation will be handed in during the practical classes, not attending implies forfeiting these marks.
