| | Methodologies |
|------------------------|--|
| Methodologies | Description |
| Workshop | The teacher acts as a mentor author, modeling writing techniques and conferring with students as they move through the |
| | writing process. Direct writing instruction takes place in the form of a mini-lesson at the beginning of each workshop and is |
| | followed by a minimum of 45 minutes of active writing time. Each workshop ends with a sharing of student work. |
| Long answer / essay | These long answers should be |
| questions | FOCUSED: Your response should answer all parts of the question without a lot of random ideas which have little or nothing to |
| | do with the question. |
| | STRUCTURED: You know the answer to the question but your ability to communicate that knowledge to your professor |
| | depends on how well you structure your answer. |
| | DOCUMENTED: Contrary to the True/False or Multiple Choice Question, your essay answer must go beyond a simple |
| | statement of fact. |
| | WELL PRESENTED: Students who do not use the accepted rules of English are often tought to be less competent or |
| | knowledgeable than those who do. |
| Completion exercises | These exercises involve selecting the best word or pair of words from a list to complete the sentence. In some other cases the |
| | students will have to rewrite the sentence in order to gain flexibility in the language. |
| Seminar | Writing Seminars all focus on the skills necessary for effective critical reading and writing. Students, through practice and |
| | guidance, master essential strategies and techniques of academic inquiry and argument. |
| Critical | A critical bibliography is primarily a test of your critical appraisal skills: can you analyze the central concepts and arguments of |
| bibliographical | the material, as well as summarize its content? |
| Collaborative learning | Collaborative learning is a method of teaching and learning in which students team together to explore a significant question of |
| | create a meaningful project. A group of students discussing a lecture or students from different schools working together over |
| | the Internet on a shared assignment are both examples of collaborative learning. |

| | Personalized attention | | | |

|---------------|--------------|-------------|---------------|
| Methodologies | Competencies | Description | Qualification |

| Workshop | A10 | The practical sessions will be devoted to exercises and writings. These exercises are designed to help students enhance their writing skills and argumentation in English so it is important to attend these seminars and follow them attentively. | 40 |
|-------------------------------|---------------|--|----|
| Completion exercises | A18 B7 C2 | The students must sit an examination in which they will be asked to write documents or to organize the information in a logical way or to correct texts. Similar exercises to those that have been used in class. | 30 |
| Long answer / essay questions | A6 A9 A19 A20 | AN INDIVIDUAL ACADEMIC ESSAY: Students will write an essay of 2 pp. on a "topic" from a list provided in class. DONE IN CLASS. | 30 |

Assessment comments

- -To compute the final grade which will be awarded to the exam, students must have passed most of the activities of the subject. If they fail the course, all activities not done, as well as the final exam, must be recovered in July.
- -Students need 3 out of 7 (workshop +essay) and 1.1 out of 3 in the exam so that such marks may compute. And, once added, obviously 5 out of 10 to pass.

Those who are officially registered as part-time students, and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity (see below). Students who do not sit their tests in January or July will be scored "No presentado", unless more than 30% of the activities (essay included) during the course have been submitted, in which case they will be scored "suspenso" (for instance, when the essay and just a few exercises have been delivered).

- -Assignments should be submitted in a timely manner to avoid being automatically disqualified.
- _The essay is to be submitted before Dec 15.

In case of plagiarism (i.e. copying) in the written work or workshop exercises, oral presentation, or mixed test, students will be automatically graded as "suspenso". Work may be tested through Turnitin in order to detectwrong citations, plagiarism or any other type of fraud. Should this occur, therules for plagiarism will be applied. (Normasde avaliación, revisión e reclamación das cualificacións dos estudos de grao emestrado universitario). Turnitin recognises papers previouslyturned in by other people (or the student him/herself) at this university orother universities, as well as other material found on Internet.

Any plagiarized exercise or test will result in a failing grade (0) in this subject in accord with article 11, section 4b, of the "Regulamento disciplinar do estudantado da UDC":

Cualificación de suspenso na convocatoria en que se cometa a falta e respecto da materia en que se cometese: o/a estudante será cualificado con ?suspenso? (nota numérica 0) na convocatoria correspondente do curso académico, tanto se a comisión da falta se produce na primeira oportunidade como na segunda. Para isto, procederase a modificar a súa cualificación na acta de primeira oportunidade, se fose necesario.

- -The only language used in class work and examinations will be English.
- -Students are required to present linguistically accurate work (including correct spelling, punctuation, etc.) appropriate to their level of studies. Failure to do so will bring penalization.

Students who have not attended classes regularly and sit only the July opportunity, will be assessed in the following way:

An essay (30%) delivered before the period of exams starts, an exam (30%) and some extra exercises (40%) done on the day of the exam. Only the exams, exercises and essays SCORED 5 /10 or above will be considered PASSED.

Diversity: This module can be adapted to students who need support for their particular situation (physical, visual, auditory, cognitive, learning process, or related to mental health). Ifnecessary, students should contact the services available in UDC/in their school or faculty, or the Unidad de Atención ala Diversidad (ADI) at the beginning of each academic semester in the timeframe officially established (https://www.udc.es/cufie/adi/apoioalumnado/);alternatively, they can contact the ADI tutor in the Faculty of Philology at the following address: pat.filoloxia@udc.gal).

- -In accordance with the various regulations governing university teaching, it is necessary to incorporate a gender perspective into this subject. This includes, among other measures, the use of non-sexist language, bibliographies that are inclusive from a gender perspective, and encouraging participation from all students in class, regardless of their gender.
- -We will pay particular attention to identifying and addressing sexist prejudices and attitudes. We will actively work towards the modification of this environment and the promotion of values of respect and equality.
- -Our efforts will focus on detecting cases of gender discrimination and implementing appropriate actions to rectify such cases.
