General description	This subject will cover the needs of health science professionals specialising in the care of the elderly, in their day-to-day contact with English, whether with written texts or spoken situations, meeting with English-speaking professionals and patients. It also deals with some theoretical (lexical and syntactic) issues.

Study programme competences / results
Code	Study programme competences / results
A4	To be able to assume responsibility for their own professional development and their specialization in both the socio-health and health care for the older people in order to join the interdisciplinary teams of Geronto-geriatric assessment and intervention
A5	Acquire knowledge that allows the student to establish the appropriate Geronto-geriatric resource according to the characteristics of the older person
A6	Develop sufficient autonomy to participate in research projects and scientific or technological collaborations within the field of Gerontology, in interdisciplinary contexts both public and private and, where appropriate, with a high component of knowledge transfer.
B1	Possess and understand knowledge that provides a basis or opportunity to be original in the development and/or application of ideas, often in a research context
B2	That students know how to apply the knowledge acquired and their ability to solving problems in new or little-known environments within broader (or multidisciplinary) contexts related to gerontology and geriatrics
B3	That students are able to integrate knowledge and face the complexity of making judgments from information that, being incomplete or limited, includes reflections on the social and ethical responsibilities linked to the application of their knowledge and judgments.
B4	That students know how to communicate their conclusions ? and the knowledge and ultimate reasons that support them ? to specialized and non-specialized audiences in a clear and unambiguous way
B5	That students possess the learning skills that allow them to continue studying in a way that will be largely self-directed or autonomous
C1	Adequate oral and written expression in the official languages
C2	Mastering oral and written expression in a foreign language
C3	Using ICT in working contexts and lifelong learning

Assessment comments
In order to pass this subject, a minimum of 5 out of 10 in the final mark is required (student portfolio, supervised project and oral presentation of project). Students must complete at least 50% of the assessment tasks (oral presentation, practical test and supervised project). Late submissions will not be accepted unless duly justified. Students will be given a grade of NP (absent) if they have not handed in more than 50% of the continuous assessment activities. Any plagiarized exercise or test will result in a failing grade (0) in this subject in accordance with article 11, section 4b, of the "Regulamento disciplinar do estudantado da UDC": Cualificación de suspenso na convocatoria en que se cometa a falta e respecto da materia en que se cometese: o/a estudante será cualificado con suspenso (nota numérica 0) na convocatoria correspondente do curso académico, tanto se a comisión da falta se produce na primeira oportunidade como na segunda. Para isto, procederá a modificar a súa cualificación na acta de primeira oportunidade, se fose necesario. July Exam Period: Students will be required to take the second opportunity in July if they fail to pass the first opportunity. They will not need to re-sit the parts they have previously passed. They can retake the parts they have failed according to the following distribution of percentages: supervised project and oral presentation (70%), and an assignment equivalent to the practical tasks (30%). December Exam: Students sitting the December exam will be assessed according to the criteria specified for the July opportunity. Students who are officially registered as part time and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University (approved by the Consello Social on 4 May 2017), will notify the instructor in the first week of classes and, if that proves impossible, within seven days from the date of acknowledgement. They will carry out the required practical work individually and hand it in before the deadline. Late submissions will not be accepted unless duly justified. The final mark will be the weighted average grade of the assessed work carried out during the course. In order to pass this subject, a mark of 5 out of 10 is the minimum required in each section of the assessment. Students will also be required to take the second opportunity in July if they fail to pass the first opportunity. They will have to re-sit the parts of the assessment they failed and will not need to re-sit the parts they have previously passed. Attention to Diversity: This module can be adapted for students who need support for their particular situation (physical, visual, auditory, cognitive, learning process, or related to mental health). If necessary, students should contact the services available in UDC/faculty. Gender equality: A gender perspective will be incorporated into this subject. This will include, among other measures, the use of non-sexist language, the selection of books and articles written by men and by women, as well as encouraging participation from all students in class, regardless of their gender. In addition, sexist prejudices and attitudes will be addressed and efforts will be directed towards the modification of this environment and the promotion of values of respect and equality. In the event of gender discrimination, appropriate actions will be implemented to rectify such cases.
