Objective test	Mid-term test designed to assess the progress made by students.
Events academic / information	When the FEE organises academic events of interest to this course, students will be told to attend the event or watch the video, if it is recorded.

Personalized attention

Methodologies	Description
ICT practicals	The accounting problems proposed to be solved in the classroom or outside the classroom are intended to strengthen the understanding of the accounting concepts and technique. To do this, the student will be guided by the teacher so that s/he can reach the solution/s of the cases that are proposed. This orientation will be carried out in the classroom, when the student requests it or the teacher perceives that the student is having difficulties to address the question to be solved, but also in individual tutorials, as well as through the virtual forum of the subject or the Teams chat. Finally, personalized attention is also very important in small group tutorials (SGTs), aimed at guiding and monitoring the team project on financial statement analysis. These SGTs are not scheduled in the timetable published by the FEE and will likely be developed in weeks 10, 11 and 12 of the course.

Assessment

Methodologies	Competencies / Results	Description	Qualification
Oral presentation	A9 A10 A13 B2 B3 B4 C2	Students are asked to present a case in the classroom. In marking this oral presentation the teacher will take into account how students have solved the case, the presentation in the classroom, and the answer to the questions formulated by the teacher and/or other students.	20
Mixed objective/subjective test	A4 A9 A12 B2 B3 C3	On the day and time marked by the center, a final exam will be held; it represents a global evaluation of the course.	30

Practical test:	A4 A9 A12 B2 B3 C3	At the beginning of each of the sessions aimed at discussing exercises and practical cases, the teacher may present to the students a small exercise, similar to those proposed to be carried out outside the classroom. Students must solve this exercise individually in the time set by the teacher.	40
Objective test	A4 A9 A12 B2 B3 C3	Throughout the course a mid-term test will be carried out without prior notice.	10

Assessment comments*CLASS ATTENDANCE AND CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT

Class attendance is critical to achieving the subject's learning goals. For this reason, to assess continuing evaluation activities (objective test, practical tests, and oral presentation) a minimum attendance of 70% will be required. If this percentage is not reached, these activities will be rated with zero points.

EVALUATION CALLSa) First call: 70% continuous assessment (as described in this guide) and 30% final exam. b) Second call: 70% continuous assessment and 30% final exam. With regard to continuous assessment, the student may choose between maintaining the grade achieved during the semester or taking a substitute test of the continuing assessment activities. This test will be fully or partially oral, will deal with any theoretical or practical aspect worked throughout the course and will represent 70% of the final mark. c) Early call ("Oportunidade adiantada"): A single test, totally or partially oral, will be carried out, designed to evaluate all the contents and competencies of the course. The grade of this test will represent 100% of the final mark. For all aspects related to "academic dispensation", "dedication to study", "permanence" and "academic fraud" the current academic regulations of the UDC apply.
