Observacións avaliación

Students who fail to comply with the 80% attendance requirement may not opt for the 10% of the final grade assigned to seminar work; instead, their written exam will be graded as 70%.

Students who have complied with the 80% attendance requirement but who have obtained less than an average grade of five on their written work may also opt for a final written exam worth 70%.

In order to pass this subject, students are required to obtain a passing grade (50%) on BOTH the oral and written sections of the exam.

Students who are unable to comply with the 80% attendance requirements due to exemption from attendance as stipulated in regulations to this effect published by the University of A Coruña (Art. 3.b e 4.5 Normas de availación, revisión e reclamación das cualificacións dos estudos de grao e mestrado universitario (Art 3 e 8b), will be assessed in the following way: 70% written exam; 30% oral test.

In the second opportunity (July) students will be assessed as follows: 70% written exam and 30% oral exam. If students passed either the written exam or oral test in the first opportunity, this grade will be maintained for the second opportunity.

Observacións

The learning outcomes of this module are pitched at a B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages. Students are reminded that this is a subject covering English for Specific Purposes, and is NOT a General English course. Likewise, they are reminded that the study of language requires preseverance and continuity over time. Erasmus students are informed that this course includes translation from Spanish to English and they therefore need a reading comprehension level of B2 in Spanish.
