Assessment comments

The objective of the mixed test will be carried out on the dates established by the center for the opportunities of the second semester and in the month of July, respectively.

The delivery of case studies, work and oral presentation will be carried out on the dates established by the teacher within the period in which the academic activities of the semester are developed. The subsequent delivery and oral presentation are subject to the existence of a cause of force majeure, and justified, which prevents the student from doing so in the period mentioned above.

It will have a non-presentation grade who participates in evaluation activities that weigh less than 20% in the final grade, regardless of the score obtained.

It is forbidden to access the examination room with any device that allows communication with the outside and / or storage of information, except those expressly authorized by the teacher.

The conditions of the evaluation at the second opportunity and at the advance opportunity will be the same as at the first opportunity. On the other hand, the student who credits or requests partial dedication (in person attendance) or academic waiver of attendance exemption, can pass the subject, obtaining exclusively the qualification that corresponds to the objective test (examination) in the final weighting.
