General description	The subject aims to give students a grounding in breadth and depth in Linguistics, by exploring the central features of some of the principal theoretical frameworks, their methodologies, contested areas and uncontested results, as also their application to English.

Contingency plan	1. Modifications to the contents
	No changes are expected.
	2. Methodologies *Teaching methodologies that are maintained All methodologies will be maintained during distance learning by means of Teams, Moodle and email, within the official class schedule. The most suitable computer tools will be used for each methodology. The workload of students will not be increased. *Teaching methodologies that are modified Students will be allowed to do the oral presentation individually.
	3. Mechanisms for personalized attention to students Email: Monday to Friday from 9:00 to 17:00. Moodle: During official class and office hours. Teams: During official class and office hours. Individual video calls should be requested in advance.
	4. Modifications in the evaluation *Evaluation observations: The test(s) will take place synchronously or asynchronously. At any rate, you will not receive the test(s) prior to the exam date and you will have a limited amount of time to complete it. They will be conducted using Moodle/Microsoft Teams. Oral presentations will be conducted through Teams. Alternatively students can record a video and send it by e-mail. In the event of any justified problems related to internet connectivity during synchronous exams, affected students will be sent examination tasks via email and/or by telephone.
	5. Modifications to the bibliography or webgraphy Digital materials will be available on Moodle.

Study programme competences
Code	Study programme competences
A1	E01 ? Familiarity with the main research models in linguistic research.
A4	E04 ? Familiarity with cognition and processing studies within the scope of research into English linguistics.
B6	G01 ?The capacity to delve into those concepts, principles, theories or models related with the different fields of English Studies is a necessary skill, as is the ability to solve specific problems in a particular field of study via appropriate methodology.
B7	G02 ? Students must be capable of applying the knowledge acquired in the multidisciplinary and multifaceted area of English Studies
B9	G04 ? Students must be able to publicly present their ideas, reports or experiences, as well as give informed opinions based on criteria, external norms or personal reflection. All of this implies having sufficient command of both oral and written academic and scientific language

B10	G05 ? Skills related to research and the handling of new knowledge and information in the context of English Studies are to be acquired by students

Assessment comments

Attendance
to class is compulsory.
Assessment in July: written examination (100%)
In all other cases (students unable to attend classes, students retaking the course, etc.): assessment will be based on a final written examination (= 100%).
Those who are officially registered as part-time students, and have been granted permission not to attend classes, as stipulated in the regulations of this University, will be assessed in either of the opportunities according to the same criteria specified for the second opportunity.
Part-time students who have been granted a "dispensa académica" must contact the teacher at the beginning of the semester in order to design the necessary changes and adjustments relating to the different activities to be carried out along the academic year.
LINGUISTIC ACCURACY
Both the theoretical and practical examination must meet the minimum requirements of linguistic correctness (spelling and grammar, punctuation, syntax concordance, lexical precision, or formal register). The level in English language expected of students is equivalent to a C1 level. Deficiencies in this area will be penalized in qualifying.
Essays and written work may be tested through Turnitin in order to detect wrong citations, plagiarism or any other type of fraud. Should this occur, the rules for plagiarism will be applied. (Normasde avaliación, revisión e reclamación das cualificacións dos estudos de grao emestrado universitario). Turnitin recognises papers previously turned in by other people (or the student him/herself) at this university or other universities, as well as other material found on Internet.
If plagiarism is detected in any of the tasks to be performed, the student will immediatly fail the whole course.
