| General description      | In this module, the theoretical links between history and the sociology of migrations will be explored. The main goal is to provide a theoretical and conceptual framework to be applied in the field of international migrations. The module includes working hours, aiming to explore epistemological, methodological and ethnic aspects in migration research and its application to cases of analysis of present realities. |        |                                                       |           |
