Methodologies
Methodologies	Description
Oral presentation	Students will carry out final work (communication plan) in groups. They must present a written work as well as an oral presentation at the end of the course. The oral defense of this task will be done the last week of the course and it will be evaluated.
Guest lecture / keynote speech	The theory of the subject will be presented in class with the aid of visual and audiovisual support.
Workbook	Students will have access to complementary readings to the syllabus. They will allow them to deepen the theory seen in class.
Workshop	Students will receive instructions from the teacher to guide the practical work. They should prepare a communication plan in groups that will be developed both in the classroom (interactive session) and outside the classroom (autonomous work) and whose evidence will be the presentation of a written work at the end of the course.
Multiple-choice questions	Multiple choice multiple choice test in which only one option is correct. Incorrect answers will not penalize.

Personalized attention
Methodologies	Description
Workshop	If there is any doubt regarding the material explained in class, hours of tutoring are available for this purpose. For students with recognition of part-time dedication and academic exemption can benefit from a specific tutoring schedule that will be agreed with the teacher and compatible with their dedication of the student. Members of the group would be able to consult the doubts corresponding to the development of the practical cases / readings that they will have to present or expose in this part of the subject.
